Ann E. Dickerson Scholarship References

A complete application contains three references:

- One reference from the applicant's pastor. In the event that the applicant is the child or spouse of the pastor, the reference should be completed by another minister of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) or a lay leader who knows the applicant well.
- Two references from a faculty member at the applicant's current institution who is familiar with the applicant's academic work.

In the letter, please answer the following questions about the applicant as completely as you can.

What is your relationship to the applicant and how long have you known him/her?

Please reflect on the applicant's spiritual and ethical development.

How does the applicant relate to other people and how do they view him/her?

PASTOR ONLY: Please describe the applicant's involvement in congregational, regional and/or general church activities and any leadership roles she/he has held?

FACULTY ONLY: How would you describe the applicant's academic performance and his/her potential as a scholar and teacher.

We request that the letter be typed on letterhead from the referee's congregation or institution. Please include the referee's name, daytime phone, and mailing address.

This reference must be returned to the address above postmarked no later than April 18, 2012.
